CARD OF THANKS

THANK YOU

I want to thank the nearly 40 people that showed up for my retirement party at the Saratoga Senior Center on Wednesday, April 26th. I was truly humbled by their thoughtfulness and kindness in thanking me for my 23 1/2 years of service at the Saratoga Care Center, 22 of those years as the Activity Director helping residents to enjoy activities. It has been a pleasure and honor to serve the residents at the nursing home over the years. I wish to thank Brenda Zeiger for the use of the Senior Center for the party, as well as Dawna Erickson and Merlynn Hoopes for organizing it. It was heartwarming to see four nurses and a resident from the nursing home there, as well as five people from the Platte Valley Medical Clinic, many volunteers who helped activities at the nursing home over the years. I was very pleased with the roses, many cards and gifts. The various cakes and ice cream were great. Now that I am retired, I look forward to many more trips with Road Scholar, as well as being a volunteer serving others in the community.
