CARD OF THANKS

Thank you is just not enough to express how grateful we are for the outpouring of love and help we received from the wonderful people of this Valley after the loss of Kim. The Saratoga Volunteer Fire Department is about so much more than fighting fires. Many were with us daily and still are. They prepared all the food for the celebration, organized the parking, did the barn set up, take down and clean up. We will be forever grateful.

Thank you to our friends and family that have kept us supplied with food, hugs and love. The cards will be cherished and the flowers were a ray of sunshine during a very sad time.

We love and thank you all.
Randy, Trevor, Derik Katie & Patty

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Town of Saratoga, Wyoming and the Saratoga Planning and Zoning Commission will conduct a joint public hearing on Monday, May 16, 2016 at 6:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as possible, in the Platte Valley Community Center (PVCC), 210 West Elm Avenue, Saratoga, Wyoming.

The purpose of the hearing is to allow citizens to review and comment on the Draft Master Plan, maps and appendices for the Town of Saratoga.

A public review draft of the Master Plan can be reviewed at Saratoga Town Hall, 110 East Spring Street, Saratoga or can be accessed on the PVCC and Town of Saratoga websites. Contact PVCC Executive Director Stacy Crimmins at 307-326-8855 for more information.

Written comments are also welcome and must be received by 5:00 p.m. on May 16th, 2016. Send written comments to Town Clerk, P.O. Box 486, Saratoga, Wyoming 82331.

Flood potential continued from page 1

potential closely. After this weekend's storms, it seems more likely that there will be an event like 2014 on the North Platte, he said.

"It's looking more probable that we're going to see another 2014 event on the North Platte," Zeiger said.

Zeiger said at the state and county level, organizations are prepared to act in the case of a flood. "The state is ready. They already have their advance assessment teams ready to come in," Zeiger said.

The National Guard has units on standby, Zeiger said, and guard units from Gillette had already responded to flooding in Lander and other parts of Fremont County.

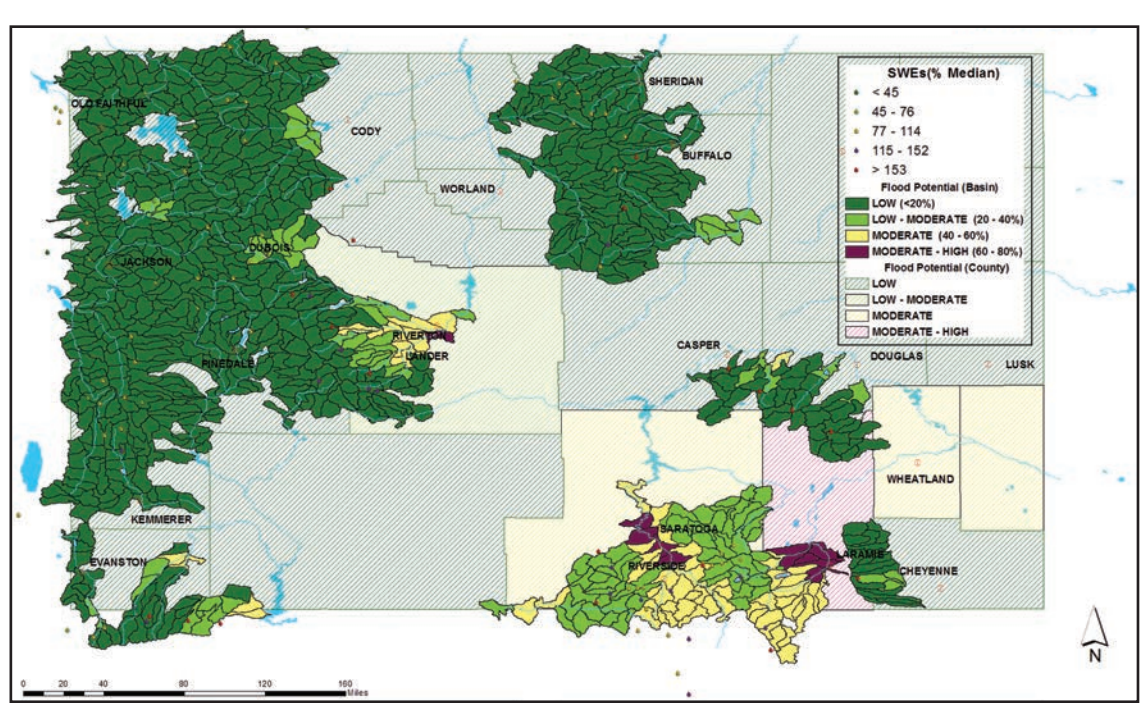

Zeiger said evacuation routes had been planned. Those on the east side of the river would be temporarily housed at the cemetery, and those on the west side of the river would shelter at the community center, unless the flooding were so bad that it was inundated, in which case those people would be housed at Saratoga High School (SHS).

Zeiger estimated that there are about 30,000 empty sandbags at the county shop, and that sandbags behind the football field were in good enough shape to where they could be inserted into new bags and used if need be. The county also has sandbags on reserve at Elk Mountain, Medicine Bow and near Bags that could be brought in, he said.

"We have a semi-trailer with Hesco Barrier and empty sandbags out at the highway shop that is ready to deploy anywhere in Carbon County that would need them," he added.

Hesco Barrier is a metal cage that is lined with plastic then filled with rocks or gravel which allows a small crew to build barriers much more quickly than with sandbags.

Map courtesy of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) shows flood probability across Wyoming. The Purple color at Saratoga indicates a moderate to high (60 to 80 percent) chance of flood. Variations in the weather such as rainfall and rapid warming can increase flood potential.

For personal preparation, Zeiger recommends those near the river have a go bag. On its website, The American Red Cross says a go bag should contain a minimum of three days of water and food, any needed medications, a flashlight, battery or crank-powered radio, a multi-purpose tool, a blanket, spare cash, important personal papers and sanitary items. The chances are high (for a flood), but things can change," Zeiger said. "Mother nature is going to do what mother nature will do."

"But right now, that's what they're planning for."
