Tigers fly ... Continued from page 7

open but Rock River would come back with a surge of their own to make it a close contest."

Peterson scored 29 points against the Lady Longhorns and had 13 rebounds while Powell followed with 12 points, 14 rebounds and 6 assists.

Bromley said that he believes that the Lady Longhorns will make a big splash in the East Regional and he looks forward to seeing them again at State.

Following the last three games, the Lady Tigers are 6-1 for conference and 18-1 for the season.

Tigers vs. Bison

Leaving Tiger Nation to take on the Bison, Encampment boys would depart Cheyenne with a 28 point lead over the South JV.

The final score was 76-48.

Tigers vs. Miners

For their final home game, the Tigers hosted HEM and sent the Miners packing with a 24-point deficit.

The highlight of the game was a slam dunk made by senior Wyatt Cox late in the third quarter following a turnover. The move, which brought Tiger Nation to its feet, added to an already emotional game with it being Cox's final home game.

The Encampment Tigers, so excited by Cox's dunk, were asked by the referees to return to their seats while Tiger fans roared with pride.

The final score was 75-51.

Tigers vs. Longhorns

After their win against HEM, the Tigers traveled to Rock River. Encampment took down the Longhorns with a nearly 50-point lead by the end of the game and put a cap on their winning week.

The final score was 83-36.

Following the last three games, the Tigers are 3-4 for conference and 14-5 for the season.

Encampment Tigers and Lady Tigers will travel to Little Snake River Valley (LSRV) to take on the Rattlers and Lady Rattlers at noon on Feb. 17. This will be their final conference game before regionals.
