BID BOND

Accompanying this bid is a standard Bid Bond, acceptable to the Owner, in the amount of not less than 5 percent of the Base Bid, payable without condition to the Owner. The bid security, which must accompany each bid, is required as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into contract with the Owner for the work described in these specifications. The bid security is subject to forfeiture in the event of default by the Underbidder.

In submitting this bid, it is understood that the right is reserved by the Owner to reject any and all bids, and to waive any and all informalities in the bidding.

EXAMINATION OF DOCUMENTS AND SITE

Bidders shall carefully examine all of the documents and the school sites to obtain first-hand knowledge of existing conditions and plan for perceived conflicts and contingencies accordingly. Prime bidders are responsible for reviewing specifications sufficiently in advance and are welcome to visit the school sites. Make contact with Larry Uhling, Facilities Director to arrange visitation or answer questions. luhling@crb2.org 307-329-5959

PREPARATION OF PROPOSALS

Proposals shall be in the form bound within these specifications. Numbers shall be stated both in writing and in figures; in case of discrepancy, the amount shown in writing shall govern.

Proposals must give full firm name and address of bidder. The person signing the bid form shall show title of authority to bind his firm in a contract. Failure to manually sign the bid form will disqualify the bid.

RESOLUTION OF DISCREPANCIES

Submit all questions about the specifications to Larry Uhling, Facilities Director. luhling@crb2.org 307-329-5959.

DISQUALIFICATION OF BIDDERS

The Owner may make investigations as he deems necessary to determine the ability of the bidder to perform the work. The bidder shall furnish to the Owner all such information and data for this purpose, as the Owner may request.

WYOMING PREFERENCE

Preference to Wyoming contractors, subcontractors, labor, and materials shall be given as required by all current Wyoming Preference Acts and Statutes. The provisions of these statutes shall hereby be made a part hereof, having the same force and effect as though written in full in these specifications.

ACCEPTANCE OF PROPOSALS

The Owner reserves the right to waive and informality or irregularity in any bid received; to accept or reject any or all bids; and to accept or reject alternate bids in any order of combination.

The Owner further reserves the right in awarding contracts to consider the competency, responsibility and suitability of the bidder, as well as of the amounts of the various bids.

POST BID INFORMATION

The successful bidder shall within seven (7) days of notice to proceed, submit the following: a statement of costs for each major item of work included in the bid, a designation of the work to be performed by the bidder with his own forces, and a list of names of subcontractors or other persons proposed for principal portions of the work.

The bidder will be required to establish to the satisfaction of the Owner the reliability and responsibility of the proposed subcontractors to furnish and perform the work described in the sections of the specifications pertaining to the proposed subcontractor's respective trades.

Subcontractors and other persons and organizations proposed by the bidder and accepted by the Owner must be used on the work for which they were proposed and accepted and shall not be changed except with the written approval of the Owner.

CONTRACT TIME

Contractor must agree to prosecute the work at such rate as to assure substantial completion prior to March 1, 2017.

The contractor may order all materials for the project at the time of notice to proceed and may commence work within the building on or after November 28, 2016. All work shall be substantially complete by March 1, 2017. Work not substantially complete by the specified date will be subject to liquidated damages, the sum of Two Hundred Dollars ($200) for each consecutive calendar day thereafter required to substantially complete the work.

As applied to this project, substantial completion shall be defined as follows: all devices and wiring installed and electrical work shall be in complete operating condition and the interior and exterior of the building shall be free from debris.

The bidding contractor is ultimately responsible for making all necessary arrangements to meet the schedule, and by submitting a bid proposal acknowledges that the specified substantial completion is reasonable and attainable.

Recreation Commission The next meeting is Wednesday, October 19, 2016 at 1:00 p.m.

Community Garden Board: Glee Johnson reviewed volunteer hours expended at the community garden.

The next meeting of the Community Garden Board will be Monday, November 14, 2016 at 5:30 p.m.

South Central Emergency Medical Services: Jeb Steward, Chairman of the SCWEMS Board addressed the council and introduced Cindy Talbott as the new Saratoga Representative to SCWEMS Board.

Mr. Steward explained that he had been traveling to each participating municipality and addressing issues that the board is facing that has an impact on each community. Jeb went on to explain that some of the board members were also volunteer EMT's or drivers which made it difficult for them to be both employees and employers through the SCWEMS board. With current changes taking place the board now consists of non volunteer members. The board is now advertising for an assistant director to help the current director with everyday operations, and the bookkeeper has accepted an additional duty as secretary to the board and is the office manager. There will be additional reporting with the monthly meetings minutes that will be more informative. There are currently no active EMT's in the Medicine Bow area and that ambulance has been transferred to Hanna where it will be used as a second out rig. As soon as Medicine Bow can recruit active EMT's and drivers the ambulance will be returned to the Medicine Bow area.

There continues to be issues that the board is addressing to enhance the services provided by SCWEMS throughout the service area. In the Saratoga and Encampment area the SCWEMS is sharing medical clinic staff for help with day coverage.

Chairman Steward expressed the board's appreciation to all of businesses who allow their employees to respond to emergency pages for the ambulance service and fire departments, without them they would not be able to operate those emergency services.

The Council expressed their thanks to Jeb Steward and Cindy Talbott for their attendance and for their dedication to our emergency services.

NEW BUSINESS: None presented

Adjournment: Being no further business to come before the meeting, Councilwoman Welton made a motion to adjourn at 6:44 p.m. Councilwoman Howe seconded and the meeting was adjourned.

The next regular meeting of the Saratoga Town Council will be held on November 1, 2016 at 6:00 p.m. in the Council Chambers of the Saratoga Town Hall.
