ORDINANCE NO.
842 AN ORDINANCE
AMENDING CHAPTER
18.51 OF THE TOWN
OF SARATOGA MUNICIPAL CODE CONCERNING PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT; AND TO PROVIDE AN EFFECTIVE DATE BE IT ORDAINED BY THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE TOWN OF SARATOGA, WYOMING

Chapter 18.51 of the Saratoga Municipal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Chapter 18.51 PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENTS
18.51.010 Purpose and intent

The purpose of Planned Unit Development (PUD) procedure is to permit creativity and flexibility in site planning, building arrangement and land use relationships by permitting deviation from the requirement of this title while simultaneously insuring substantial compliance with the intent and purpose of this title. A PUD could also permit mixed use development or redevelopment in accordance with an approved plan that should contribute to the Goals, Strategies and Actions described in the Town's Master Plan.

A higher density and mixed use may be allowed under planned unit developments than would normally be permitted under a district's conventional zoning.

The goal is to make more efficient use of land that lowers development and maintenance cost of infrastructure and achieves a more desirable development than would be possible through the strict application of the Zoning and Subdivision Regulations. The PUD process can accommodate well-designed residential or mixed-use business park development that is typically composed of commercial and light industrial uses, research and development facilities, offices and business services, developed in a campus or park-like environment.

The additional open land areas that are created under this type of development can be utilized for a variety of purposes such as, but not limited to, recreational open space, street and trail access.

18.51.020 Planned Unit Development Application Procedure

Pre-Application Meeting: Prior to submittal of any application for Planned Unit Development, all applicants will schedule a pre-application meeting with the Zoning Officer or his/her designee.

The purpose of the meeting is to: Afford an opportunity to determine if a PUD meets the Purpose and Intent of this Planned Unit Development Code;

Help facilitate timely processing and submittal of a complete application;

Discuss any other issues relevant to an application.

Conceptual Plan: The applicant shall submit a Conceptual Plan for review and comment by the Zoning Officer and the Planning Commission. Public notice is not required; however, the Planned Unit Development Conceptual Plan will be placed on the agenda of a regular meeting of the Planning Commission and the Commission may consider public comment. The purpose of the Conceptual Plan review is for the applicant and the Commission to evaluate and discuss the basic concepts for development. It should include a discussion of the general locations intended for development and the areas planned to remain undeveloped; the general alignments for access, water supply and sewer as well as other utilities such as gas, telephone and cable. It is also the opportunity to reach general agreement on such issues as the appropriate range of dwelling unit density, type of dwelling units and if commercial or industrial use is proposed. The outcome of the Conceptual Plan review should be an identification of issues and concerns the applicant must address as part of the PUD application.

The Conceptual Plan shall be submitted in writing and include the following information: A site plan, including total acreage and a vicinity map.

A project description, including a statement addressing the following: Summary of proposed land use, residential density and type, commercial, industrial or other.

Access roads and\or streets.

Utilities, including solid waste.

Any other information necessary for the applicant to describe the development concept.

If a PUD application is not submitted within one (1) year from the date of the Planning Commission meeting, a new Conceptual Plan must be resubmitted.

Upon conclusion of the review of the PUD Conceptual Plan by the Planning Commission, the applicant may proceed with a PUD application.

Application: An application for a Planned Unit Development must be submitted on an application form provided by the Zoning Officer, signed by the record owner and applicant, if different from the owner, and accompanied by the Application Fee.

In addition to the above submission requirements, a PUD application must address the following:

A development program or PUD Guide describing the uses and activities to be permitted within each development area, including the following:

A description of existing conditions, including a plan, photo or map.

A site plan showing the layout of roads, including right-of- way widths and status of ownership, easements, lots, proposed location of buildings, and development immediately adjacent.

The overall density for the Planned Unit Development, as well as the proposed density for each land use (Reference 17.08.130).

A description of the land to be left in a natural condition as open space and the proposed method for long-term ownership and management.

A description and location of land to be dedicated for public purposes, such as, but not limited to, parks, schools and fire stations.

Conceptual architectural plans or a description of the architectural theme:

Including a description or elevation drawings of the residential building type(s), single family and multi-family and\or other types of dwelling units.

Including a description or elevation drawings of the commercial and industrial structures.

Survey and engineering drawings:

A written statement by a professional engineer licensed in Wyoming, which shall describe the following:

The proposed method and arrangement for a domestic water supply and fire protection, including projected demand.

The proposed method and arrangement for a sewer system.

The soil, geological, and ground water conditions of the site; and the manner in which storm drainage will be handled.

If the Planned Unit Development is to be developed in phases, a description of each phase and an estimated date of completion for each phase.

Any other information determined to be necessary to make a comprehensive evaluation by the staff, Planning Commission, Saratoga-Carbon County Impact Joint Powers Board (SCCIJPB) and Council.

All applications must be reviewed and signed by

18.51.030 Supplementary Planned Unit Development Standards and Criteria

Recommendations by the Planning Commission and approvals granted by the Council shall be based on a review of the following standards and criteria, a specific Planned Unit Development Plan, in addition to general conformance to existing Town Codes and adjacent existing uses.

The maximum building height is thirty-five feet unless modified under the terms of the PUD. All new construction within the airport height restriction area depicted on the existing zoning map for Saratoga shall conform to the height requirements as described in the Saratoga Municipal Code; Chapter 14.12.060.

Signs, pursuant to Title 18.63 – Signs – unless specifically approved in the PUD.

Parking, pursuant to Title 18.45 – Off Street Parking and Loading – unless specifically approved in the PUD.

Landscaping is required and must be maintained along all front lot lines. For corner lots, there shall be no site obstructions in the corner clearance or clear vision area. Landscape requirements may be waived by the Planning Commission for good cause shown Screening Standards: All manufacturing and fabricating areas shall be enclosed in buildings, and all outside equipment and material storage areas shall be screened by walls, fences or adequate plantings to a height of not less than six feet (6'); unless alternative standards are specifically approved in the PUD.

For Planned Unit Development's containing residential development of more than twelve (12) lots or twelve (12) units, a minimum of 5% of the total project area shall be dedicated as open space or parks. When required, open space or parks shall be dedicated by plat or appropriate covenants and managed by a property owner's association or similar legally constituted arrangement to construct and maintain the mutually owned property unless waived by the Planning Commission for good cause shown.

If the Planned Unit Development Application is silent concerning a particular standard or restriction, the Planning Commission shall clarify and resolve conflicts.

18.51.040 Planning Commission Recommendations and Council Approval

The Zoning Officer will send notice to property owners within 300' of the proposed Planned Unit Development. Property owners will be invited to attend an announced public hearing to voice concerns and comment on the proposed Planned Unit Development. Notice of said hearing shall be given by at least one publication in a newspaper of general circulation with the Town at least 15 days prior to the hearing date. Such notice shall at a minimum contain the following information: Location, Time, Place and Date. The Planning Commission will vote to Recommend or Not Recommend Approval of the Planned Unit Development.

Approval: The Town Council may approve the Planned Unit Development at a regularly scheduled meeting. Council approval of a PUD shall constitute an amendment to the Town of Saratoga official zoning map by Resolution.

Length of Approval: If no action is taken toward maintaining the Project Schedule, the PUD shall expire after two (2) years.

Extension: The Applicant(s) may request an extension of the Planned Unit Development for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months upon a showing of good cause. The Applicant(s) shall apply to the Town in writing for the extension no later than ninety (90) days prior to expiration. The Applicant(s) shall provide such information as is necessary for the Town to determine whether good cause exists for the extension. Such information may include, but is not limited to, good faith efforts to obtain required authorization from other agencies with jurisdiction, such as the Department of Environmental Quality, delay in construction due to weather conditions, or other causes which have delayed the project and which are beyond the reasonable control of the Applicant(s). The Board shall promptly consider the request for the extension and either allow it or deny it. No PUD shall expire during the time the decision on the extension is being considered.

Expiration: Upon expiration, the Council shall amend the Town of Saratoga official zoning map, by Resolution, to the zone district classification that was in effect prior to the PUD zoning.

Minor deviations from an approved Planned Unit Development may be approved by the Planning Commission. Minor deviations that can be authorized are those that appear necessary in light of technical or engineering considerations first discovered during actual development and were not reasonably anticipated during the approval process. Minor deviations shall include items that do not materially change the approved planned appearance of the PUD such as but not limited to; alterations to alignment of underground utilities, property line adjustments to accommodate easements or drainage considerations.

The approved PUD Guide must be recorded with the Town Clerk, recorded with the County and will run with the land unless otherwise conditioned or restricted to the current owner.

18.51.050 Subdivision requirements

The Planned Unit Development shall conform to the requirements of Title 17 of this code where applicable. The subdivision regulations may be modified subject to planning commission approval by the degree necessary to accomplish the objectives and standards required for the planned unit development. Application fees for planned unit developments shall also be in accordance with those established in Title 17 and shall be adjusted from time to time as necessary and appropriate by the governing body without resolution.

This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its approval, passage and adoption.

Education

Students invited to enter Letters about Literature contest

Staff Report

The Wyoming State Library invites students in grades 4-12 to enter the 2017-18 Letters about Literature writing contest. Prizes will be awarded in state and national competition at each level. Wyoming winners will receive a $150 Amazon gift card for 1st place, a $100 gift card for 2nd place, and a $50 gift card for 3rd place. Postmark deadline for Wyoming entrants is January 12, 2018. To enter, students each read a book that inspires them or shows them a new way to see the world. Each student then writes to the author (living or dead) to share how the book affected his or her life. Letters will be judged in three levels: grades 4-6, grades 7-8, and grades 9-12. Both classroom and individual entries are welcome. A teaching guide is available that provides activities and addresses how the program can dovetail with curriculum for teaching reading and writing. Ready-to-print posters to promote the contest are available on the Wyoming State Library website at library.wyo.gov/letters. Guidelines, entry form, and the teaching guide are available at read.gov/letters. Questions may be directed to Susan Mark, Wyoming State Library publications specialist, at susan.mark@wyo.gov or 307-777-5915.
