

SNOW & ICE works out so nice!

Encampment held their 32nd annual Sierra Madre Winter Carnival Friday and Saturday

Leslie McKlinskey and Melissa Faust ferry their children up Rankin Street.

Galloway O'Leary hurtles towards the finish line on Saturday.

A quaint cabin scene painted by Howard and Jane Hill sits outside Good Things.

Taylor Huntley leads Skyler Pickett in Human Saucer Bowling.

Zeb Munson lays down the dividing line for Sled Races Saturday morning.

Hayden Suttee manages to take out some pins as he crashes on Saturday.

Bob Herring, Jr. shows his pancake prowess.

Hoyt McKinney hurls snow at his father, Cole McKinney.

Savannah Suttee works smart, not hard, as she utilizes dog power to get around.

Sledders trek up Rankin Street to prepare for a rapid descent.

Photos by Joshua Wood